

Preparing for College Workshops

Each of these workshops will be led by Chris Hitchens from College Admissions Solutions. He is a college admissions consultant who provides counseling to help students and families choose a school, college, or other program that is a good personal match: one that will foster the student's academic and social growth.

Registration required for EACH workshop on Baldwin Library's website: baldwinborolibrary.org.

College Searching in the Arts: Thursday, May 2 @ 6:30 pm

Musicians, dancers, thespians, cheerleaders, majorettes, and all other artists: all the information you need to know from whom to contact at the colleges to reasons students don't get accepted.

Crafting an Unforgettable College Essay: Sound Advice from an Expert: Saturday, May 11 @ 10 am

What ARE college admissions officers looking for as they read through thousands of essays each year? The answers may surprise you! This three-hour workshop will focus on advice and strategies on what, and what not, to include when it's time to write your essay, length and topic of essay and what sets your essay apart.

Play Sports in College: Tuesday, May 14 @ 6:30 pm

Learn how to get recruited at the college level and find the best academic and athletic fit. You don't have to be the star athlete to get recruited!

Getting into Tier I Colleges: Thursday, May 23 @ 6:30 pm

Learn twelve strategies necessary to get into Tier I colleges, including the Ivy League schools, plus learn three surprising reasons why students are rejected.

